

HAW Workshops

Haldimand Art Works Presents

Christine Boyko-Head took inspiration from a box of chocolates and turned it into a PHD dissertation and a published book. Since then she has enthusiastically shared her work with national and international audiences. She is a creativity facilitator, innovative educator, public speaker, and dynamic fundraiser.

Writing Workshop Series

April 20: Writing from memory

May 11: Crazy story creations

June 1: Monologues and dialogues

June 22: Shifting perspectives

July 13: Writing from photos, music, and newspapers

August 3: Writing from life

Time: 7:00pm - 8:30pm

Place: Dunnville Kinsmen Hall

102 Main St. W Dunnville

On the river across from Optimist Hall

Cost: $15/workshop or $80 for series

Price includes complimentary refreshments

To register, please visit our website at www.haldimandartworks.ca or call 905-772-7000

These classes integrate different art forms to encourage writing that taps into our authentic and unconscious voices. Participants will explore ways to avoid the horrors of the blank page and the dreaded writers block while enjoying the freedom of self expression through the written word.

Promoting, Nurturing, and Celebrating the Arts in Haldimand County

